

A naughty girl

Bathokwa book club
English

once upon a time there was a girl
by the name of Emily

Emily was very naughty

whenever her mother asked her to do anything she would refuse

One day her mother was sick. She asked her to go her grandma and ask for some special medicine, so that she can drink and get better.

Because Emily was naughty, she decided to go and have a swim on her way to grand ma.

It became late, her mother started to worry.

Her mother called the people of the village to help her look for Emily

She was very worried because there was a monster who eats little girls at night

While the people were looking for Emily, she was still having fun in the pond.

She was not aware of the darkness

It was time for dinner for the monster and he started looking for food. As he was walking he started to smell a little girl.

The village people were getting closer and closer to the pond.

Emily saw the monster coming and she started to scream.

The people of the village heard a little girl's scream and they started to run towards the voice

The people of the village found Emily still in the pond, she was very scared.

And from that day she learned to listen and to respect her mother.

A naughty girl

Writer: Bathokwa book club

Illustration: Catherine Groenewald, Vusi Malindi, Rob Owen, Natalie Propa, Ingrid Schechter and Melany Pietersen
Language: English

© bathokwa book club

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution (CC-BY) Version 3.0 Unported Licence

Disclaimer: You are free to download, copy, translate or adapt this story and use the illustrations as long as you attribute or credit the original author/s and illustrator/s.

Saide
South African Institute for Distance Education

www.africanstorybook.org
A Saide Initiative